

Awards & Recognition Program

The University of Louisville Trager Institute and Kentucky Association for Gerontology (KAG) are pleased to announce its 2019 Optimal Aging Conference Awards and Recognition Program.

The program seeks to: a) recognize the excellence of the personal efforts of individuals working in the fields of gerontology and geriatrics; and b) bring increased public and professional attention to and interest in gerontology and geriatrics across the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

2016 Lois E. Layne Awardee

There are four different types of awards for which individuals can be nominated:

- The Lois E. Layne Award (for student achievement)
- The Thoroughbred Award (for exceptional advocacy for seniors)
- The Distinguished Achievement Award (Educator Category)
- The Distinguished Achievement Award for practitioners (Practitioner Category)

View full description for awards at www.TragerInstitute.org/conference-awards

How to Nominate:

To nominate an individual for one of the Optimal Aging Conference awards, please submit three pieces of information:

1. Complete the Nomination Information section found at the end of the Conference Award Instruction & Nomination Packet.
2. Provide brief but explicit summary of nominee's efforts and accomplishments.
3. Address and number each of the Award Evaluation Criteria for the respective award for which you are submitting a nomination.

Nominations are due via mail or email May 10, 2019

Email: TragerInstitute@louisvill.edu

Subject: Optimal Aging Conference Award

Mail to: ATTN: Sarah Morgan
University of Louisville Trager Institute
300 E. Market St., Suite 200. Louisville, KY 40202

Questions?

Contact (502) 852 - 5629